Hello from Box Cars! Happy start of the week. Here in Edmonton there are only a few grubby snow banks left! It's almost as if....winter might finally be over? Or is that speaking too soon?

This week, we are pleased to be featuring a video by our consultant Jennifer Awid, who works out of the Black Gold School Division in Leduc, Alberta. Jennifer is one of our busiest Family Math Night presenters, and if you watch the video you will see why! She is a wonderful FMN host and is great with both parents and kids. Something to consider for the fall, perhaps, if you are located in the Edmonton area.

More importantly, we're featuring Box Cars' true A-lister, Sydney. Great job, Sydney! Check out her video below for a great K-1 introduction to subtraction game.
